Early Career Coach Group Coaching Supervision

Who is it for?

Starlight Coaching Supervision Group - newly qualified or just starting out on your coaching journey, or not coached for a while and looking for some space to think and develop your practice.

Why invest in Supervision as Experienced Coach?

- Beginning to work with a coach supervisor is a great way to build feedback loops into your coaching practice and develop further.
- Do you want to invest in a programme of development that focuses on the 'here and now' for your own development?
- Supervision provides a space that allows coaches to grow and flourish, it helps coaches to recharge and prevent coach burnout.
- Coaching supervision is about working on ourselves so that we can in better service to others.
- As a trained and experienced Coaching Supervisor I know that coaches benefit enormously from mutual interactions and spark off each other, learning from experience as well as observation.
- Supervision is an extension of our learning and practice.
- Are you ready for an exciting catalyst for developing or enhancing your Coaching practice

Commencing May 2021

2021:

6 May; 8 Jul; 9 Sep; 4 Nov

2022:

6 Jan; 3 Mar

All sessions start at 8am

- Fee - £75 per session (£450 for the year)
- 90 mins sessions
- Size of Group - Max 5 in a group
- Delivery - On Zoom - so you can be anywhere in the country/world.

What happens in a Session?

- The focus is on coaching practice. The three main areas we may explore are self-care, learning and development, and practice issues. Whatever you feel will help you develop as a coach is relevant in the supervision space.
- Supervision is a space for reflection and it helps you develop your reflective capability leaving you better able to develop as a coach and therefore serve your client.
- It provides you with support, tailored learning and a place to sense check ethical & boundary issues.
- The nature of group supervision is that we all learn from each other - I keep groups intentionally small so as to ensure a space of safety can be cultivated.
- We share practice issues.
- Once the group is formed it is closed to anyone else.

If you are looking for

- Being in a room with other professional coaches.
- Looking for space to explore and develop your coaching practice.
- A small closed group that will give you the safe group environment.
- Opportunity to constructively question yourself.
- Space to question some assumptions you hold.
