

The Conversation Company

Storytelling Organisational Development Programme

Delivering a unique Executive Led Development Programme of Storytelling to support a cultural change journey through a connection between an organisation and its people through compassionate leadership

For Organisations who are ready to:

- Deepen understanding and appreciation of each other
- Deepen a shared understanding of the joint journey they will be going on
- Agree why they want to go on a culture change journey
- Agree what they would like to see changed
- Provide individual space through executive coaching
- Provide 'Team Space' as the commencement of the culture change experience and craft this as organisational stories to enhance impact across the organisation and wider

Our Approach

- Qualified Experienced Coaches support, challenge, and facilitate this unique space.
- Creates important space for conversation, dialogue, and reflection
- Understanding opportunities for change or to shift dynamics
- Provides individual coaching to support personal development

Content

- Up to 10 executive officers
- Extended contracting for psychological safety
- 4 x group workshops x 2 hrs
- 6 x 90 mins coaching sessions per executive officer
- Storytelling for managers playbook of tactics
- How to use playbook sessions
- Masterclasses for managers
- 6 month duration

Outcomes

- An inclusive methodology to relate, empathise, and create a shared understanding and trust.
- Tools and techniques to lead change
- Bravery to hold difficult conversations
- Models for compassionate leadership
- A framework for sustained culture change

If you feel this could be for your organisation

Email to arrange a conversation
rachel@theconversation.company

Our purpose is to transform the role of conversations in people's lives